

Greek Language Program and Mediation Services for Minor Third-Country Nationals (TCNs)

Information for Schools

The Program “Greek Language Program and Mediation Services for Minor Third-Country Nationals” (TCNs) («Γεια Χαρά!») is addressed to students attending a primary education class during the school year 2018-2019 and 2019 - 2020.

The program is being implemented by the Research Centre CARDET, in cooperation with the Frederick University and the Advisory Company INNOVADE, in collaboration with the Pedagogical Institute of Cyprus and Department of Primary Education. It is funded by the Migration and Asylum Fund for the Integration of the Republic of Cyprus.

Mediators will provide

- Facilitating teachers in their day-to-day practice.
- Overcoming the difficulties of language and cultural differences with students.
- Minimize friction and misunderstanding when contacting immigrant students.
- Creating an environment of confidence and enhancing the sense of satisfaction of staff from effective teaching.
- Immediate resolution and successful handling of complex problems that arise under pressure and cultural shock in TCN students,
- Identify and address any barriers of teacher communication with TCN parents,
- Collaboration with teachers in classroom in the event of the need to collect country-specific material, as well as the understanding of relevant Greek-Cypriot cultural material,
- Collaboration with teachers and school to understand information about social and religious beliefs.

Program Implementation

- Mediation services will be offered to all provinces of free Cyprus, in a specific number of schools, with a total duration of 40 hours from September 2019 to June 2020.
- Services will be offered during school hours
